

Free 8 Week Online Course: Intro to FBA and BIP for School Social Workers!

Although participants are not required to sign in during specific times of day, this is NOT a self-paced course. Participation and assignments must be completed by due dates designated throughout the course to receive credit

For more information on the course or information on graduate credit through ASU, please contact:

Moira Blake
Blake_M@cde.state.co.us

Introduction to Functional Behavioral Assessment (FBA) and Behavior Intervention Planning (BIP)

An eight-week online course.

The Colorado Department of Education's Exceptional Student Services Unit and Office of Learning Supports have partnered to provide this exciting learning opportunity.

WHO: School Social Workers

WHAT: This online course will present an overview of Basic Functional Behavioral Assessment (FBA) and Behavior Intervention Plans (BIP). The course provides a foundation for understanding FBAs and provides opportunity for practice in the completion of FBAs and BIPs

WHEN: February 20th, 2017 - April 16th, 2017 (8 weeks)

COURSE CREDIT: 30 education credit hours or 1.0 graduate credit hour through Adams State University (additional fees apply for graduate credit).

** REGISTRATION CLOSING AT 11:45 PM ON February 10th, 2017 or when registration is full.

SPACE IS LIMITED-REGISTER HERE NOW!